

Help Us “Capture the Baked Goods Bandit”

Follow Bandit around the fairgrounds by figuring out the following clues.

	I can be found looking for a natural treat. Jelly, juice and wine are all so sweet.
	As I’m checking out the trades of the Past. I spin and spin oh so fast.
	After they are sheared, they are so cool. I love to lay in their beautiful wool.
	If you are getting tired don’t falter. Find me here buying a new halter.
	Robin Hood I’m not, but I might try to get lucky and make a bullseye shot.
	A stallion is male, a female is a mare. I HOPE you can find me under a tent at the fair.
	I’m looking to buy a plastic container to keep my stolen goods fresh for later.
	When I’m not eating the Best of Show, reading is my favorite hobby I want you to know.
	If I go number 1 or 2 the “problem solvers” know what to do.
	I want a good night’s sleep so I’m going to find the top winning blanket to keep.
